4. Review of Applications and Issuing of Funds

The applications will be reviewed to ensure that they are complete; no additional content is required. The funds will be distributed through a random drawing of names from a pool of all qualified applicants. The goal is to collect as much money as possible in order to be able to provide aid in relatively high amounts. We hope to be able to provide € 1,000.00 to each qualified applicant whose name is drawn. The exact amount will not be able to be determined until it is clear what the total income of the Niemand kommt festival is. Applicants have no claim to financial support.

5. Declarations

I hereby confirm that the information I have provided in this application is correct and complete. I am aware that false information can lead to applicants truly in need of this financial support being prevented from receiving it.

I declare that I have not received any funds from the Soforthilfe II program of the State of Berlin.

I declare that I will use any financial support provided exclusively to help deal with the existential threat to my livelihood.

I am aware and confirm that I have no legal claim to any financial support from bbk - berufsverband bildender künstler*innen berlin e.V., those people working for it or any other third parties.

I provide my consent for individual passages from the description of my financial situation to be quoted anonymously on the Niemand kommt festival website (www.niemandkommt.de) as well as on the associated social media accounts. We would like to use these quotes to draw greater public attention to the emergency financial situation for independent artists and culture makers during the coronavirus pandemic.
